WORKING IN PARTNERSHIP WITH PARENTS

We had the pleasure of taking the Y6 football team to Chopwell School for the cup competition of the Blaydon and District League on Thursday 22nd September.

They all did us proud and showed great teamwork and sportsmanship. Although they didn't reach the next stage, this didn't dampen their spirits. Well done boys!

Writers of the Month

I am always delighted to read the children's writing, it is so lovely to see their progress and once again there are excellent examples of good writing on the Writing Creatively board. For the month of September I have selected four pieces of writing to be included in this week's bulletin. The writing ranges from one of our reception class pupils, to that of Jasmine D who is in Y6. If you are in school, please take time to view the writing on the board that is just outside of my office.

The Gingerbread Man

Once upon a time there lived an elderly man and woman who were making a delicious gingerbread man. He had icing swirls for eyes and chocolate buttons for decoration. Then they put him in the sizzling oven to bake. Mmm, a lovely smell of gingerbread burst out like a fire.

Amazingly, the delicious gingerbread man came alive! "Ouch" he screamed as he instantly started sweating and crying at the same time. He climbed and flew out of the transparent window. The old lady fainted with amazement and the gingerbread man scrambled away.

As he skipped away happily he met a hungry chicken who said to the gingerbread man "come a little closer." "No" said the gingerbread man.

Willoughby Chase

As far as the eye could see, the glowing snow covered the ground as it fell gracefully from the purple overcast sky. Colourless icicles hung from the great oak which stood strong and tall next to the towering manor house guarding the land for miles. A golden square of window lit up the surrounding darkness. Turrets pierced the moonlit sky and smoke came drifting out of the herring-bone brick chimney.

Inside the joyous hubbub of people warming up by the fire was overpowering the hideous howling of the wolves without. The delicious scent of food being prepared in the great kitchen drifted over the pleated hills into the distance, where the silhouetted trees swayed in the angry wind.

Meanwhile, the wolves stood in the mist, their howling echoing for miles. Their eyes gleaming in the moonlight. They too could smell the smoke and the delicious scent of food being prepared in the kitchen and then they got closer.
